

Cookies & Privacy

This website uses cookies. By using this website and agreeing to this policy, you consent to Karibu African Support Group use of cookies in accordance with the terms of this policy.

Cookies are files sent by web servers to web browsers, and stored by the web browsers.

The information is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. This enables a web server to identify and track web browsers.

There are two main kinds of cookies: session cookies and persistent cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your computer when you close your browser, whereas persistent cookies remain stored on your computer until deleted, or until they reach their expiry date.

What We Use Cookies For

Karibu AWSG uses Wix Analytics to analyse the use of this website. Wix Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website.

Karibu also uses a cookie to not show repeated reminders of our Cookie Policy.

Refusing cookies

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies.

In Internet Explorer, you can refuse all cookies by clicking "Tools", "Internet Options", "Privacy", and selecting "Block all cookies" using the sliding selector.

In Firefox, you can adjust your cookies settings by clicking "Tools", "Options" and "Privacy".

Blocking cookies will have a negative impact upon the usability of some websites.

Karibu African Women Support Group, respects your privacy and we're committed to protecting the data you supply (we hate spam - so we promise not to bombard you).

1. Information This Website Collects

Via our website sign-up

This information is stored on our database for the above purposes on a third party secure server (*see below for more information on our Third Party Data Processors).

We have installed an SSL certificate on our website to aid with data security.

You can request for your data to be removed from our database at any time by contacting us or clicking the 'opt-out' link provided in each e-newsletter.

Contact forms and email links

The information you provide to us via email or within an enquiry form from our website will not be stored in a database.

However, your email address and the details you provided will of course be within our email client systems [such as Outlook or Mac Mail] until we delete it. We will use the information you provide to deal with your enquiry, the project we are commissioned for, or to aid with our marketing efforts.

2. Cookies:

Like the majority of websites... this one uses cookies. These are tiny text files stored on your computer by your browser. They collect information about how you browse this website and provide information about your computer settings, your operating system and your IP address. They help with Google Analytics and will collect data such as: the pages you visit, dates and times, how long you spend on each page, what you click on within a page and how you found the site. These cookies don't collect personal data such as names or addresses.

Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer (however, this may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website). If you wish to disable cookies, do a Google search for 'How to disable cookies' relevant to the browser you use.

3. *Third Party Data Processors:

We have a number of third parties that use data provided through our website. These are listed below along with links to their own Privacy Policies:

Google Analytics

We use Google Analytics to provide us with our website statistics.

<https://www.google.com/intl/en-GB/policies/privacy/>

Wix

We use Wix to host our website. Although we do not collect data via them, you can read their privacy policy here.

<https://www.wix.com/about/privacy>

Social Media Platforms

We provide links to our social media pages from this website, these platforms have their own Privacy Policies:

Instagram - <https://help.instagram.com/155833707900388>

Facebook - <https://www.facebook.com/privacy/explanation>

4. How We Handle Data Breaches:

We will report any unlawful data breaches to relevant authorities within 72hrs of the breach.

5. Your Rights:

We'd be happy to provide you with a copy of the information we have stored of your personal data, please see the contact information below. We'd hate to say 'goodbye' however, if you wish for your details to be deleted, please let us know via the contact information below.

6. Contact Information / Data Controller:

Karibu African Women's Support Group

Email – community@karibuawsg.com

7. Changes To Our Privacy Policy:

Any relevant changes to our Privacy Policy will be added to this page.

8. And Finally:

We take every care to protect your personal data however, we can't guarantee total security and therefore provision of your data is done so at your own risk.

Our site contains links to other sites. If you follow a link to any of these other sites, please note that each should have its own privacy policy and we are not responsible for how they manage and/or store any data provided to them.